

Enjoy world-class wine from sprawling vineyards surrounded by glacier-formed lakes.

"The Finger Lakes are long, beautiful, deep-blue gashes in the slate and limestone of upstate New York. Wine has been made here for 150 years, and all around the hills, high above the lakes, vineyards clutch the earth." -Wine Spectator

Create family memories that will last a lifetime.

"Of you stay in Finger Lakes Wine Country long enough, you'll have your own story to tell, one that's best served around a table surrounded by friends, drinking wine, eating cheese and looking out onto one of the crystal-clear lakes of south central New York."

-Lainey R. Seyler, Home & Away Magazine

Heron Hill Winery

See where flavor begins in the vineyards of Finger Lakes Wine Country.

"Because the true charm of the Finger Lakes is its unpretentiousness and decidedly anti-Napa feel, oenophiles will have a field day exploring all of the trails. It is a still growing scene, so it's not uncommon to have the actual owners pouring you their wines while waxing poetic about the virtues of the climate and terrain." -Robyn Moreno, New York Daily News
