Birth of an info-graphic!

In these days of decreased attention spans and 'business on the go' – infographics have become a popular way to communicate complex subjects in a succinct fashion. Here's the evolution of one of one such graphic: Give a shout if you could use help distilling one of YOUR complicated messages in this fashion. ;)

New blog posts: "Fire! Ready. Aim?" and "For Marketing Breakthroughs, Look Away."

Check out the latest blog posts from our Creative Director, John Hoeschele. In one, he touches on the merits of making sure you know your marketing objective before you jump to tactics. (Seems obvious, but sometimes it's not!) In the other, John explores the value of looking for epiphanies and insights in industries outside your own.

STAY CONNECTED

Your copy should address 3 key questions: Who am I writing for? (Audience) Why should they care? (Benefit) What do I want them to do here? (Call-to-Action).

Create a great offer by adding words like "free" "personalized" "complimentary" or "customized." A sense of urgency often helps readers take an action, so think about inserting phrases like "for a limited time only" or "only 7 remaining!"
